

New Government New Direction    Question and Answer Session

Following on from Finny and study, is Emmanuel continuing Wim's series?

Where does 'servant' and 'bond slave' fit into all this?

What advice for increasing current level of fast from a day to 2 days (or more) and how to physically prepare to fast?

How do we avoid legalism with the disciplines we are examining and how best can we take the Sunday message and make it a practice which lasts?

How do you stop fasting from becoming a 'habit', something you just do for the sake of doing it? How do you keep it fresh?

Why do we fast? As a consistent practice or for a particular purpose?

The day we had of fasting in March was really good - are we going to fast corporately more often? For specific things/people etc as well as generally?

Taking giving purely as the easiest example to show the concept. How do we reconcile the 'discipline' of tithing with the responding to the move of God. They seem to be at odds unless God is to move every payday.

What does it mean to live a life of simplicity when we live in such a wealthy society? It feels like we are sold on the worldly values of money and belonging, and its hard to change without leaving the world we live in behind.
